

Sample Interview Questions For Jill Greenbaum, Ed.D.

College Coach & Author of The Chill Guide to Getting into College

1. So Jill, what's the college search like for teens these days?
2. What makes you an expert on the college search?
3. What are students' biggest fears about college?
4. How can students avoid confusion and overwhelm during their college selection process?
5. Why is knowing yourself a key element of the college search process?
6. What can teens do to make their college search transformational?
7. What do colleges want from students today?
8. How can students use their strengths to thrive during the college search and selection process?
9. How is the college search and selection process just like the choices students will make the rest of their lives?
10. How does your coaching program, "Choose the College That's the Right Fit for You!" support students?
11. What are parents concerns? What are they saying about:
  - the college search process
  - their changing roles with their teens
  - having conversations with their teens about the search, paying for college, and moving on
  - their hopes and dreams for their soon-to-be first year college students
  - their worries
  - their new lives
12. What are the variety of services and products you offer to juniors, seniors, and their parents during the college search and selection process?

SHOW IDEAS

- 🎧 How do you support your teen in discovering which colleges are the best fit?/How do you figure out which college is best for you?
- 🎧 How can your teen/you be the best college candidate?
- 🎧 Jill Reveals the 6 Biggest Lies Teens Hear About Getting into College
- 🎧 5 Simple Steps to Surviving Your Teen's College Search
- 🎧 Most people think the college search is confusing, the truth is, it's a series of small steps
- 🎧 How to talk to your teen about college/becoming a young adult
- 🎧 3 Steps to Transitioning to be the Parent of a Young Adult

To Schedule an Interview,

Contact Jill at

1.877.375.7412

Myths & Controversies

- * Looking for a college is overwhelming
- * I'll never find a college that's a fit for me
- * I'll never be accepted at a college I like
- * Teens don't know how to make the right choices, they need their parents' advice
- * Parents always give good advice during the college search process
- * Teens can manage their college search by themselves
- * Parents should visit the colleges with their teens
- * Going to a state school is less expensive than going to a private school
- * Guidance counselors have enough time to help every student get ready for college
- * Ivy League (Big Ten, private, state) schools are the best schools for everyone